

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND TITLE IX RESOURCES

The University of Maryland is committed to creating and maintaining an education, working and living environment that is free from all forms of discrimination and harassment, including sexual misconduct. The following are available on-campus resources. Confidential resources* are not required to report incidents to the Office of Civil Rights and Sexual Misconduct (OCRSM).

OFFICE OF CIVIL RIGHTS & SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Office of Civil Rights & Sexual Misconduct (OCRSM)

- Location: 3101 Susquehanna Hall
- Phone: (301) 405-1142
- Email: titleIXcoordinator@umd.edu
- Website: ocrsm.umd.edu

OCRSM administers policies and procedures prohibiting and addressing all forms of discrimination and harassment, including sexual misconduct. OCRSM provides supportive measures and conducts University-wide training and outreach to foster an environment free of discrimination and harassment.

University of Maryland Police Department (UMPD)

- Location: Pocomoke Building (007)
- Emergency Phone: 911 or (301) 405-3333 [Mobile Phone: #3333]
- Non-Emergency Phone: (301) 405-3555 •Email: PIO@umpd.umd.edu
- Website: umpd.umd.edu

The University of Maryland Police serves the university community, protects life and property, and enforces the law. Police work with the community in a cooperative community policing effort to prevent crime from occurring and to respond and provide assistance to victims once crime has occurred.

CARE to Stop Violence*

- Location: University Health Center, Building #140
- Phone: (301) 741-3442 (24/7 Crisis Line/Phone)
- Email: uhc-care@umd.edu
- Website: health.umd.edu/wellness-advocacy/care-stop-violence

CARE provides free, confidential advocacy and therapy services to survivors of sexual assault, relationship violence, stalking, and sexual harassment, while simultaneously empowering the campus community to prevent violence through educational presentations, events, and outreach activities.

Counseling Center*

- Location: 1101 Shoemaker Building
- Phone: (301) 314-7651 (24hr Support)
- Website: counseling.umd.edu

The Counseling Center provides free and confidential psychological services to help students manage personal, social, and academic challenges, and provides short-term individual counseling, group counseling, evidence-based workshops, and referral assistance.

Psychiatry and Substance Use Services (PASS)*

- Location: University Health Center, Building #140
- Phone: (301) 314-8106
- Email: health@umd.edu
- Website: health.umd.edu/PASS

The University Health Center provides high-quality, cost-effective health care and wellness programs in order to promote the health of the University community and support academic success. PASS assists students that are struggling and seeking support.

Student Legal Aid (Undergraduate & Graduate)*

- Location: 3125 South Campus Dining Hall •Website: legalaid.umd.edu

Undergraduate Student Legal Aid (SLAO)
•Phone: (301) 314-7756 •Email: slao@umd.edu

Graduate Student Legal Aid (GLAO)
•Phone:(301) 405-5807 •Email: glao@umd.edu

UMD Student Legal Aid provides free legal advice and university charge assistance to undergraduate and graduate students at UMD. Students are advised of legal rights in a culturally competent, compassionate, confidential, and supportive setting.

University Chaplains*

- Phone: (301) 314-9866
- Email: Chapel@umd.edu
- Website: stamp.umd.edu/centers/memorial_chapel/chaplains

The Chaplains work collectively to serve the spiritual needs of the University of Maryland. The Chaplains, supported by & representing their faith communities, serve their faith traditions while demonstrating a unity that contributes to the rich diversity & quality of life at the University & in the community.

Ombuds Services

- Please use the website link below to access contact information for each individual Ombudsperson (faculty, staff, graduate students, & undergraduate students).
- Website: president.umd.edu/administration/administrative-offices/university-of-maryland-ombuds-services

Ombuds officers can be consulted by members of the university community who want to get information about University policies relating to their activities or who encounter problems that they cannot resolve through ordinary channels. An Ombuds listens to complaints and helps, if possible, to resolve them.

Office of Student Conduct (OSC)

- Location: 2130 Mitchell Building
- Phone: (301) 314-8204
- Email: studentconduct@umd.edu
- Website: studentconduct.umd.edu

The Office of Student Conduct serves the entire UMD community by investigating referrals, enforcing the Codes, and committing to a fair, honest, and transparent conduct process.

Rights & Responsibilities (R&R) Office, Department of Resident Life

- Location: 3020 South Campus Commons Building #3
- Phone: (301) 314-7598
- Email: drl-rr@umd.edu
- Website: reslife.umd.edu/resident-resources/safety-policies/rights-responsibilities

The R&R Office serves four primary goals: maintain the safety & necessary order for an academic residence community; determine accountability for prohibited behavior; foster among students an understanding of their accountability as community members, and promote student well-being & personal development.

Bias Incident Support Services (BISS)

- Location: 2417 Marie Mount Hall
- Phone: (301) 405-0980
- Email: BiasSupport@umd.edu
- Website: biassupport.umd.edu

BISS assists UMD community members who have been impacted by bias and harm based on aspects of their identity. BISS responds, educates and reports to the campus community about bias, its impact, as well as protocols related to bias. The unit is housed under Belonging & Community at UMD.

LGBTQ+ Equity Center

- Location: 2411 Marie Mount Hall
- Email: lgbtq@umd.edu
- Phone: (301) 405-8720
- Website: lgbtq.umd.edu

The LGBTQ+ Equity Center builds an inclusive, supportive, and vibrant campus community that centers belonging in teaching, research and service for people of all gender identities and expressions, sexes, and sexual orientations. It is housed under Belonging & Community at UMD.